Butte College Book in Common Flex Event!!

Explore one of the main topics of the 2015-2016 Book in Common, Just Mercy by Bryan Stevenson, from a comedic viewpoint.

W. Kamau Bell Ending Racism in About an Hour

Comedy

Wednesday, September 9| Laxson Auditorium | 7:30 p.m.

BUY TICKETS: $20 Adult | $18 Senior | $10 Youth | $10 Chico State Student

Their performances crackle with energy - Seven Days Magazine

W. Kamau Bell is a socio-political comedian who is best known for his critically acclaimed, but criminally short-lived, FX comedy series, Totally Biased Wth W. Kamau Bell. The New York Times called Kamau the most promising new talent in political comedy in many years, and Salon magazine said Totally Biased is surreptitiously revolutionary in its effortless diversity and humanism. These days Kamau might be most excited about his podcast with fellow comedian Kevin Avery titled Denzel Washington is The Greatest Actor of All Time Period.

PLEASE NOTE: NO SERIES OR DISCOUNTS FOR ONLINE PURCHASES - FOR SERIES OR DISCOUNTS PLEASE CALL THE BOX OFFICE AT (530) 898-6333 OR VIST THE BOX OFFICE ON THE CORNER OF W. 3RD AND CHESTNUT STREETS. VISA, MASTERCARD AND DISCOVER ONLY FOR ONLINE SALES.

NOTE: If tickets are no longer available online at www.csuchico.edu/boxoffice, please call (530) 898-6333 or visit the University Box Office at 400 West First Street, Chico to check for availability.

Jennifer Lasell will be attending the event with a flex sign-in sheet (Flex # 147.01) – seat J109.